TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY.

General Howard is in Charleston, South Carolina, examining the condition of the colored people. The General delivered an address on Tuesday evening at the African church, advising the freedmen to remain where they were, to be industrious, and abide by their contracts. He also urged the importance of education.

At a meeting of the New York Fenian Circles, on Tuesday evening, Captain O'Shea denied that Stephens had broken faith, or was a traitor, or had defrauded the Brotherhood. The funds were all safe in charge of Col. Kelley and other prominent officers. He said Stephens was not a British spy, or in connivance with the British government. Circumstances compelled him to remain here, as at the departure of the last French steamer he was without funds. This would seem to be an admission that Stephens is still in New York.

On Saturday night burglars robbed a safe at Maysville, New York, of eight thousand dollars, belonging to the Buffalo and Oil Creek Railroad Company.

Governor Blaisdell, of Nevada, was inaugurated on Tuesday, the 8th inst.

The Ohio and Mississippi Railroad was sold yesterday to Trustees, for the creditors of the road, for one million of dollars.

The several National banks of St. Louis have agreed to unite in a memorial to Congress to the following effect: No contraction of the currency; no prohibition of National banks to allow interest on deposits; redemption of their notes only at their counters.

The Legislature of Maine has voted to continue the suspension of specie payments until April 15th, 1868.

A convention of Spiritualists is being held at Tremont Temple, Boston.

Rev. Mr. McMahon, Colonel Lynch, and five other Fenian prisoners, condemned to death at Toronto, have had their sentences commuted to twenty years' imprisonment in the provincial penitentiary at Kingston. Thirty-two prisoners remain to be tried at Toronto.

Gov. Crawford, of Kansas, in his message, recommends impartial suffrage in that State, and the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment. The liabilities of the State are $81,856; resources, $577,000. The Governor recommends the payment of $80,000 claims against the State, in consequence of the rebel General Price's raid by the issue of seven per cent. scrip, payable in one, two and three years. The number of school districts in the State is 871; teachers, 1,248; pupils, 37,798. Three hundred miles of railroads are in operation in the State, and the Union Pacific Company expects to complete two hundred more during the present year.

Complaints have been made in the interior of Louisiana, of the indifference of the freedman to make contracts for the ensuing year, the engagements being chiefly by those who remain with their former masters.

The National Convention of colored soldiers and sailors in Philadelphia, yesterday adopted addresses to Congress and the people, closing with an appeal for the exercise of the ballot and the enjoyment of all the privileges granted to whites.

The Democrats of the Pennsylania Legislature have nominated Edgar Cowan for United States Senator.

FROM MEXICO.

The Liberals Win a Battle—Escobedo Turns Up—How Matamoras, Canales and Cortina are Amusing [Themselves—Evidence of News by a "Reliable Gentleman."

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The Herald's Matamoras letter, dated December 25th, gives a report of a battle recently fought near Gudalcalzar, in the State of San Luis Potosi, between Mejia's troops and the Liberals under Trevino, resulting in the complete victory of the latter. A large number of prisoners were taken. Escobedo is making forced marches to join Trevino and drive Mejia from the State.

Cortina is in pursuit of Canales, whom he promises to thrash soundly.

Gen. Berriobazal has issued a decree directing all chiefs and subalterns, who have not reported, to leave Matamoras within twenty-four hours under penalty of arrest as conspirators.

Official news of the occupation of San Luis Potosi has been received.

Escobedo has been placed in command of the States of Tamaulipas, New Leon and Coahuila.

GALVESTON, Jan. 9.—The steamer Thames, from Vera Cruz, put in here to-day for coal.

A reliable gentleman on board states that the entire French army is moving towards Vera Cruz. The rear guard, under command of Marshall Bazaine has issued orders that the last French soldier shall be embarked by the 3d of January.

Positive advices from San Luis Potosi, Dec. 15th, left the French Commander there with a well appointed force.

The Liberal army under Nevine was about five thousand strong, but scattered and levying enormous contributions from the haciendados.

Mejia, it is said, would wait until the rear French train and treasure had passed, when he would attack and drive back the Liberals.

Maximilian keeps very close at Puebla.

A French expedition is bound to Tampico to clean out the place before embarking.

The French soldiers in Mexico number 14,000, but at present there are only two transports and two frigates, including the Austrians, at Vera Cruz. The Imperial Mexican force, added to Bazaillon, will number 30,000, all armed from French arsenals. The Empress Maximilian has not the slightest intention of abdicating.

The French have used great severity towards parties at Vera Cruz who proclaimed for Santa Anna and Campbell on their arrival at Vera Cruz. Dupaine, the commander, is charged with approving the abuse of individuals from France.

The commander-in-chief of the French army lately imprisoned Charles Morehead, of the firm of Jarvis & Co., at Vera Cruz, in a loathsome dungeon, and ordered a poor Confederate tenant, named Polk, from Texas, to the punishment of three hundred lashes, for protecting himself from being run over by a French officer, by taking his horse by the bridle.

The guerrillas threw a railway train from the track on Thursday, the 3d of January, not far from Vera Cruz, sacking the train, and cutting up the French soldiers on board.

PENIAN EXCITEMENT AT AN END.

NEW YORK, January 9.—The mail news from Europe states that the Fenian revolution has almost entirely disappeared.

HIGHLY SATISFACTORY ALL AROUND.

Count Bismarck delivered a very able speech in the Prussian Legislative Chamber, in which he frankly stated the reasons why Prussia concluded peace with Austria. He thinks France has gained by the exclusion of Austria from Germany, and that Napoleon and his Cabinet will manifest friendly relations with enlarged Prussia.

The Journal, of St. Petersburg, proclaims that the good understanding existing between Russia and Austria has not been disturbed.

The speeches interchanged between General Dix and Victor Emanuel produced a very pleasing effect on the public mind.

RELIGIOUS STATUS IN ITALY.

Baron Ricasoli, Premier of Italy, writes an important letter on the subject of the elected Bishops of the Catholic church and their status after their return. He extols the plan of freedom of the Bishops guaranteed in the United States, as a model one for the Catholics of free Italy.

L'Monde states that in spite of his first Minister, Victor Emmanuel has signed a treaty of alliance, offensive and defensive, with the Emperor of the French.

The Opinione Nationale says that its Roman correspondent reports that Pius IX has given the assurance that he will not quit the Holy See.

The Seamen Lost on the Fleetwing—Stephens Undoubted Hiding in New York—Atlantic Cable Receipts—U. S. Senator from New York—Liberty Dealers Arrested.

NEW YORK, January 9, 1867.

FLAG PRESENTATION.

A handsome flag was presented to-day to the steamship Chicago, on behalf of the Board of Trade of Chicago. Mr. Hoyne made the speech on the presentation, and it was responded to by ex-Mayor Ogden, of Chicago.

SEAMEN LOST ON THE FLEETWING.

Sixteen hundred dollars have been subscribed for the families of the seamen lost from the yacht Fleetwing.

AMERICAN SHIPPING WIPED OUT.

The Complete official list shows that 1061 American ships were transferred to the British flag in the past five years; 109 American ships were sold in London.

STEPHENS IN NEW YORK.

There seems no doubt Head Centre Stephens is still secreted in this city. He is said to fear the indignation of his countrymen.

ATLANTIC CABLE RECEIPTS.

The receipts of the Atlantic Cable are great er to-day than the reduced tariff than before. Both cables are in excellent order, but the present business does not occupy in transmission more than four hours per day, and that on one cable.

A MURDERER SENTENCED.

George Wagner, who murdered his wife on July 18th 1865, was to-day sentenced to be executed on March 1st.

LOTTERY POLICY DEALERS ARRESTED.

Forty-four keepers of lottery policy shops, were arrested to-day, and held to bail to appear for trial on charges of violation of the State law.

A FORGER ARRESTED.

A boy named Richard McCormick was arrested for attempting to draw a forged check for $6,900 on the Fourth National Bank, purporting to be signed by Jay, Cooke & Co., and committed for trial. The police are searching for the author of the forgery.

THE EXCISE LAW.

It is understood that the constitutionality of the New York Excise or Liquor Law will be tested in the United States Supreme Court.

U. S. SENATOR.

A telegram from a reliable source at Albany says the prospects of Roscoe Conkling are decidedly the best for the United States Senatorship.

FROM MISSOURI.

Amending State Constitution—The Test Oath to be changed—Opposition to Payment for Enlisted Slaves—Drake Nominated for U. S. Senator.

ST. LOUIS, January 9.—A bill was introduced in the State Senate, to-day, to amend the State Constitution by abolishing the test oath as applied to ministers, teachers and lawyers; also striking out the word "white." Read twice and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Amendments.

A concurrent resolution was adopted, instructing Senators in Congress, and requesting Representatives, to urge the repeal of the law appropriating money for the payment of slaves enlisted in the United States service.

In the House, resolutions providing for the amendment of the Constitution, the same as proposed in the Senate, were tabled.

Charles D. Drake was nominated for the United States Senate in the Radical caucus, at Jefferson City, to-night, by a vote of seventy-seven out of eighty-seven. Afterwards the nomination was declared unanimous. About thirty Radicals were absent.

Colonel Montgomery, of the State militia, who was arrested at Lexington by United States Marshal Wallace, was released to-day, by Habeas Corpus, issued by the United States Circuit Court. Several other parties, including the Sheriff of Lafayette county and Mayor of Lexington, in custody of the Marshal, will proceed to St. Louis for trial before Judge Treat, of the United States Circuit Court.

The Appointing Power of the President.

PROBABILITY OF THE HOUSE TARIFF BILL.

Who Recommended the Pardon of Prominent Rebels.

GEN. GRANT'S RECEPTION LAST NIGHT.

European Advices as to Surratt.

WASHINGTON, January 9, 1867.

NEW ORLEANS RIOT COMMITTEE.

It is ascertained on good authority that the New Orleans Riot Committee will submit two reports, the minority denying that the riots were brought about by any agency of the civil authority. The two reports of the majority and minority will cover 700 printed pages.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

The Judiciary Committee began the investigation of Mr. Ashley's charges against the President to-day. He was called before the Committee and formally made the charges. The Committee impose the injunction of secresy, and contingents disobeying will be called to account. John W. Forney will appear before the Committee to-morrow to depose to the charges against the President, accompanying Ashley's resolution of impeachment.

CHANGES IN THE MANNER OF APPOINTMENTS.

Mr. Sumner will introduce a proposition to-morrow requiring all officers of the Government, whose compensation shall exceed one thousand dollars per year, from salary or fees, to be appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate. All persons of this class now holding office are to be legislated out, in order that new appointments may be made and sent to the Senate for its action.

THE TARIFF.

The Senate Finance Committee will probably report the Tariff Bill on Monday, and prominent members of the Senate express the opinion that the bill will pass after two or three days' debate.

PROMINENT REBELS PARDONED.

In response to a call of the House the Attorney General sent in to-day the report of the prominent rebels, officers and citizens, pardoned since April, 1865. The list is quite lengthy, and shows who recommended to the Executive clemency. Among the latter are Generals Grant, Meade, Sherman, Sickles, Thurlow Weed, H. J. Raymond, Governor Fenton, Governor Brownlow, Ex-Attorney General Speed, George D. Prentice, and many other loyal men. General Grant signed the petition of Generals Roddy, A. P. Stewart, and others.

JOHN H. SURRATT.

Secretary Welles received a telegram per cable to-day from Rear Admiral Goldsborough, in command of the European squadron, stating that the steamer Swartara left the squadron for the United States, yesterday, with John H. Surratt on board.

GEN. GRANT'S RECEPTION LAST NIGHT.

The reception of General Grant was a magnificent affair. Many Senators and members of Congress, Foreign Ambassadors, and other distinguished persons were present.

THIRTY-NINTH CONGRESS,

(SECOND SESSION.)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9, 1866.

SENATE.

PETITIONS AND MEMORIALS.

Sundry memorials and petitions of minor importance were presented and referred.

A REMINDER OF THE KANSAS WAR.

Mr. SUMNER presented the claims of the New England Emigrant Society for $25,000 damages done to its property in Leavenworth, Kansas Territory, by a mob, some years ago. Referred to the Committee on Claims.

PENSION MATTERS.

Mr. LANE reported from the Committee on Pensions, a bill granting pensions to the widows of deceased Union soldiers of East Tennessee, who were hung by rebel authorities during the war, when caught burning a bridge near Knoxville; the pension in each case is $8 per month and dates from November, 1861; also, a bill increasing the pension of the widows of revolutionary soldiers, married before 1800.

THE EQUALITY OF RACES.

Mr. MORRILL, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported adversely the bill annulling all laws and ordinances of the District of Columbia, and of the several territories, making a distinction between persons on account of color, and for the punishment of officers and persons who may attempt to execute any such laws or ordinances contrary to the provisions of the act. This subject, he said, had already been acted upon in the suffrage bill.

PAYMENT OF PENSIONS.

A bill to provide for the payment of pensions was taken up, and after discussion postponed.

THE ADMISSION OF NEBRASKA.

The bill for the admission of Nebraska was then taken up.

Mr. JOHNSON addressed the Senate in opposition to the pending amendments, contending that Congress had no power to regulate the suffrage question.

The debate was further continued by Messrs. JOHNSON, WADE, and others.

Mr. JOHNSON, in the course of his argument on the equal rights question, said it was the intention of the Constitution to place all on equal grounds, and for that reason he was opposed to the amendment.

Mr. WADE hoped the friends of the bill would not vote for Brown's amendment; the other was all right, let it pass, and would result in the immediate admission of Nebraska.

After a protracted debate, Mr. Edmunds' amendment was lost. Yeas 15; Nays 29. Mr. Brown's amendment was also voted down. Yeas 8; Nays 22.

Mr. EDMUNDS then moved his amendment as an amendment to the original bill. Not agreed to.

Mr. BUCKALEW then spoke against the bill, on the ground that the Constitution was rejected by a fair vote of the people of Nebraska.

Mr. CRAGIN believed that Congress was bound to admit the Territory, and all irregularities would soon be remedied by such admission.

Mr. WADE—Let us have a vote on the bill.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to amend by adding as an additional section his former proposition, which was carried. Yeas, 24; nays, 15.

ADMISSION OF COLORADO.

On motion of Mr. WADE, the bill to admit Colorado as a State was then taken up.

Mr. EDMUNDS moved to amend, by adding the same amendment which had been attached to the Nebraska bills. Agreed to. Nays 21, Yeas 28.

Mr. HENDRICKS, of Indiana, said this action was even more irregular than that on the Nebraska bill. In addition to the small population of Colorado, it was the first instance of Congress changing a constitution which the people had adopted.

Mr. WILLEY said he had voted against the bill to admit Nebraska, with Mr. Edmunds' amendment, but as it had passed he would vote for this bill.

Mr. GRIMES said, for some reasons stated by the last speaker, he would vote against it. His conscientious scruples would not allow him to act so inconsistently. He believed the Amendment would be entirely inoperative and void.

Mr. DOOLITTLE read the statement of the Governor of Colorado, in which he said that the Constitution was no indication of the sentiments of the people, and that there was but 27,000 people in Colorado; that the endeavor to have it admitted was the act of wicked and designing men, and at least two-thirds were opposed to it.

Mr. DOOLITTLE reiterated the charge that this admission was only to reinforce the party, and that the proposed amendment was unconstitutional.

Mr. WADE said he hoped they would have a vote immediately on it.

Mr. WILLIAMS said while he voted for the bill, he would not acquiesce in the amendment. He feared the majority had put on record to-day something which would return to plague the inventors.

Mr. WILLEY held himself responsible to his own conscience for his vote, and not to the Senator from Wisconsin, (Doolittle) who had enough to do to take care of his own conscience.

Mr. DOOLITTLE disdained any intention of casting any imputation on the Senator's high moral sense.

Mr. EDMONDS believed posterity would ratify the doctrine in the amendment.

A vote was taken and the bill passed; yeas 23; nays 11.

Messrs. Foster, Grimes, Doolittle and Morgan were among the negative votes.

NO DISTINCTION ON ACCOUNT OF COLOR.

On motion of Mr. WADE, the Senate took up the bill to prevent any distinction on account of color in any of the Territories of the United States.

Mr. WADE then moved to strike out all of the enacting clause, and insert the following: "That in all the territories of the United States there shall be no denial of the elective franchise, by reason of race or color, and all persons shall be equal before the law, and all acts or parts of acts, either of Congress, or the Legislative Assembly of any Territory inconsistent with the provisions of this act, are hereby declared null and void."

Mr. WILLIAMS suggested that the language of the bill include Indians, large numbers of whom were in the Territories. This would be a dangerous mode of legislation.

On motion of Mr. LANE, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

INDIAN AFFAIRS.

Mr. KASSON introduced a resolution to restore the jurisdiction of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to the War Department. Referred.

Resolutions were agreed to, requesting the Secretary of the Interior to inform the House of any modification necessary in the third article of the treaty with the Choctaw and Chickokees, ratified June, 1866, whereby 6,000 negroes in the country of these Indians can have their rights as citizens defined.

NEW YORK POST OFFICE.

Mr. ALLEY reported a bill making an appropriation for the purchase of a Postoffice site in New York.

REDUCTION OF TAX ON INCOMES.

Mr. CULLOM, of Illinois, introduced a resolution, instructing the Committee on Ways and Means to inquire into the expediency of amending the revenue laws so that incomes under one thousand dollars shall be exempted from taxation. Agreed to.

CLAIMS OF LOYAL SOUTHERNERS.

Mr. MAYNARD, of Tennessee, introduced a resolution to modify the resolution of the 18th of January, 1866, directing the Committee on Claims to refuse to consider all claims preferred by citizens of the late rebel States, so that the same shall not apply to claims of loyal citizens in Tennessee.

Mr. WASHBURN, of Illinois, objected.

BOUNTIES TO SAILORS.

Mr. TAYLOR, of New York, introduced a resolution directing the Committee of Naval Affairs to inquire into the expediency of amending the appropriation bill, approved July 28th, 1866, so as to allow seamen and marines of the United States to have the same bounties as are allowed soldiers. Passed.

A QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Mr. CHANLER, of New York, rising to a question of privilege, said:—He was recorded in the report of the press as having stood on the floor of the House, upon the same footing as the Globe reporters and subject to the same restrictions. Referred to the Committee on Rules.

TAXATION OF BANK SHARES.

On motion of Mr. HUBBARD, of Connecticut, the Judiciary Committee was instructed to enquire into the expediency of repealing that section of the national banking act as limits the right of State authority to tax bank shares at the place where the bank is located, might not be amended so as to permit such taxation for American stock as would be levied upon like property in the State where the bank is located.

ONLY SURVIVOR OF THE REVOLUTION.

A petition was presented from citizens of Fulton and Saratoga counties, New York, praying for an appropriation of one thousand dollars per year for Samuel Downing, the only survivor of the Revolutionary army.

PARDONED REBELS.

A message from the President transmitting the report of the Attorney General, giving the list of pardoned rebels, was presented. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

INCREASED PAY TO CLERKS.

The joint resolution to increase the compensation of the employees of the civil departments of the Government was taken up, but, after some debate, was laid over, and the House adjourned.

FROM MARYLAND.

A Retaliatory Law—Bill to Declare Void the Late Election in Baltimore —Rejection of the Constitution.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 9.—In the Maryland Legislature a resolution was introduced in effect as Congress has passed an act delaying payment to loyal owners of slaves enlisted in the army, therefore the Comptroller shall decline to pay further bounties to negroes, as had been provided by the Legislature heretofore.

A bill was introduced to declare illegal the late municipal election in this city, and provide for another in February.

The Democratic caucus to-night have not agreed as to United States Senator. Governor Swann's chances are best.

The bill for a Convention to revise the Constitution provides for an election in April.

James B. Brien, during a performance in the Holliday Street Theatre, to-night, fell back in a seat and died of heart disease.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON THIRD PAGE.)

Accident in a Coal Bank Near Wheeling.

On Tuesday a sad calamity, by which two brothers named G. A. and D. W. Peak were seriously injured by a fall of rock, occurred in Thomas Hogg's coal bank, near Rhinedale, not far from the Zane street bridge at Wheeling. The brothers were working together in the mine when the rock fell, and both were struck with it. D. W. Peak, the youngest brother, had his thigh and five ribs broken and his left shoulder badly injured. G. A. Peak, the elder brother, was not so badly injured, but it is exceedingly doubtful whether he can survive. Three of his ribs were broken and his left shoulder terribly crushed. He was conveyed to his home, a short distance from the mine, and the manglered remains of his brother were taken to the same place. Mr. G. A. Peak is a married man, and his brother, who is a young man about eighteen years of age, boarded with him. They were both steady, hard working men, and had been employed in the mines for some time. Dr. Russell was summoned to attend the injured, but arrived on the grounds of the surviving man. The unfortunate sufferer was living on Tuesday night, but it was feared his injuries would prove fatal.

A January Swimming Match.

A swimming match in January is something a little out of the ordinary run. Such a match was made up last evening. Two gentlemen, one a steamboat pilot, and the other an ex-army Captain, bantered each other to a swim, naked, in the Ohio river. The arrangement was perfected. The parties were to strip and swim from the ferry wharf at the Point to a coal barge some distance out in the river, and return back to the wharf. The one who reached the point of starting last was to forfeit one hundred and fifty dollars. Between six and seven o'clock they repaired to the scene of the proposed contest, accompanied by some friends and between fifty and a hundred onlookers who had got wind of the affair. The contestants proceeded to strip for the race, and were about carrying out the agreement, to the great astonishment of the onlookers and some of the friends, thinking the affair had progressed far enough, interfered and prevented the would-be champions from committing suicide. The bets were declared "off," and the whole party retired.

Runaway.

About three o'clock yesterday afternoon a team of horses attached to a heavy wagon belonging to Kennedy & Co., Pearl Flour Mills, Allegheny, while standing in front of Meek's warehouse, on First street, became frightened and ran away. On the corner of First and Market streets, they collided with a horse and dray owned by John Kurtz, overturning and breaking one of the shafts. The horse and dray standing in front of Townsend on the same street, shared a like fate, one of the shafts being demolished. During their flight along market street, many pedestrians and vehicles must have had narrow escapes from accident. The team was finally brought to a stand still at the corner of Penn and St. Clair streets, having received but slight injury.

Obtaining Boarding Under False Pretences.—William H. Simpson, the keeper of a fish restaurant on the corner of Wood and Sixth streets, made information before Alderman Strain yesterday, charging James Samuel with obtaining boarding under false pretences. It is alleged that on the 1st of August last the accused came to his house and engaged boarding, representing that he was a partner in a store on Liberty street. On the strength of these representations he obtained board to the amount of $22.55. Subsequently, it was ascertained that the representations made were false, the defendant was arrested and adjusted the matter by agreeing to pay the bill as speedily as possible.

Orphans' Fair.—The voting on the horn is still exciting, at nine o'clock last night the vote stood 1529 to 1572—for both Vigilant and Columbia. The contest closes to night—when nothing but sealed ballots will be received up to nine o'clock, when all the voting will cease, and the money counted. Fair continues the balance of the week.

Meeting of Allegheny Councils.

Both branches of the Allegheny City Councils held a regular stated monthly meeting, last evening, in their respective chambers in City Buildings.

COMMON COUNCIL.

There were present Messrs. Brown, Campbell, English, Hanna, Ingham, Megraw, Miller, McNeil, McDonald, Reed, Riddle, Faulhaber and President Benney.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

MARKET AFFAIRS.

Mr. Hanna, from the Market Committee reported as follows:

Revenue from Market House during the year 1866.....$15,002 20
Diamond Weigh Scales.....1,519 28
Second ward Scales.....332 16

The receipts from the Market House for 1865 amounted to $12,772 81 which is $1,229 49 less than the year just closed. As every foot of space is now occupied, it cannot be expected that the revenue for the present year will exceed last year's, unless new buildings are erected.

PROPOSED FIRE AND POLICE TELEGRAPH.

Mr Reed presented the report of the Fire Alarm Telegraph committee as follows: Your committee to inquire into the different systems of Fire Alarm and Police Telegraph, respectfully report that we have attended to the duty assigned us, and, after a careful inspection of the two systems in general use, would recommend to the new councils, for their adoption, the S. D. Cushman system, as being in all respects, equal, if not superior, to any other now in use. This system is so simple, that any person can use it after a few minutes instruction. It will not cost more than one-fifth to keep it in order, that the other system costs, as it does not require a central office and electricians to be kept at great expence, to give necessary alarms.

It is also a complete Police Telegraph without any additional expense. It could also be used to convey messages to the various city officers at their places of business in the city. In fact it is a complete system of telegraphing, so simplified that any person may understand and operate it, while it possesses these advantages, our city can have it erected and put in complete working order for about one-fourth the sum which our sister city expended to have their system put in working order. Signed, J. A. Reed, Geo. D. Riddle, J. A. Meyran, (Drum.) Read, accepted and ordered to be filed.

FIRE ENGINES.

Mr. Reed presented the annual report of the Committee on Fire Engines, showing the following summary of the expenditures of the Allegheny Fire Department for the year 1866. The total expenditures of the department for the year aggregated $9,858.76, apportioned among the several companies as follows:

General Grant.

|---|---|
| Salaries paid | $1,805 00 |
| Bills paid | 1,964 21 |
| Salaries due | 216 50 |
| Bills due | 39 49 |
| | $4,045 75 |

Hope.

| | |
|---|---|
| Salaries paid | $1,850 00 |
| Bills paid | 1,421 00 |
| Salaries due | 270 00 |
| Bills due | 35 07 |
| | $3,576 07 |

Friendship.

| | |
|---|---|
| Salaries paid | $ 720 00 |
| Bills paid | 1,397 27 |
| Salaries due | 210 00 |
| Bills due | 16 27 |
| | $2,343 54 |

Columbia.

| | |
|---|---|
| Bills paid | $ 306 24 |
| | $ 306 24 |

| | |
|---|---|
| Total | $ 9,570 01 |
| Salary of lamp lighter, Mr. Magill, 10 months | 750 00 |
| | $ 8,820 01 |

The government tax on gas consumed by the city included in the above, was $307 12.

There are now 261 public Gas Lamps erected within the city, 17 of which were erected during the past year.

Much, if not all, of the inconvenience resulting from the neglect of the police in lighting the lamps is attributed by the employes to the absence of Mr. Mcoll to attend to that duty who since his appointment, has discharged his duties faithfully. (Signed Joseph McDonald, William Smith, and Robert Reed.)

Report accepted and ordered to be filed.

CITY POOR FARM.

Mr. English presented the report of the directors of the City Poor Farm. From it we learn that the number of inmates on the first of January, 1866, was 72; admitted during the year 168; born 8; discharged 87; died 14; thus leaving at the house on January first, 1867, 82 inmates; average for 1866, 76.

Of the inmates fourteen are in the Insane Department—five females, nine males.

The receipts for the year were $16,059.49.

Expenditures, $17,491.72.

Revenue derived from other sources than taxation, $9,204.87.

Net cost of keeping the house for 1866, $8,286.85.

Average cost of each inmate per year, $107.85, or $2.07 per each, per week.

The report sets forth that paupers are upon the increase, and that the poor tax shall not be reduced, but fix for the present year an amount equal to 4 three mill tax. The present location of the Institute should be changed, as it is not being suitable for the purpose intended. It has not enough tillable land to supply the quantity of grain and vegitables necessary, nor to keep a sufficient number of stock. The farm is yearly becoming more valuable for other purposes, and the Committee, in view of the rapid advance in real estate, think the present a proper time to secure a suitable farm with a view of removing thereto at some future day.

The report covers a set of rules and regulations for the government of the City Farm, and was also accompanied by an inventory of City Johnston, Steward of the Farm, showing the stock, &c., of the place. (Signed John C. Barr and Wm. Murdoch.)

Read and referred to the Committee on Poor Farm, with instructions to report this (Thursday) evening. (Non-concurred in by select Council and ordered to be filed.) Conference Committee appointed.

THE CONSOLIDATION.

Mr. Riddle offered the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Board of Trade of Pittsburgh has prepared a bill to be presented to the Legislature, asking for the consolidation of all the Cities and Boroughs embraced in a radius of five miles; and

WHEREAS, In the said bill provision is made to submit the matter to a vote of the people embraced within the limits of the proposed Consolidated City; and as it is believed that the citizens of Pittsburgh are much more anxious to have the measure consummated than the City of Allegheny, or any of the surrounding boroughs; therefore be it

Resolved, That our Senators and Representatives are hereby respectfully but earnestly requested to oppose the passage of said bill unless a provision be inserted leaving the people of the City of Allegheny to determine, by ballot, whether or not it will be included in the consolidated city.

Read and adopted.

Mr. Hanna called up the report of the Committee on New Market House from last meeting. Common Council receded from their original action and concurred with Select Council referring it to new Councils.

Pending the question of concurrence with the repeal of the ordinance regulating the ordinance preventing the erection of frame buildings, a spicy and animated discuss on took place. None of the arguments offered in favor of repealing the prevention of the erection of frame tenement houses, but all appeared favorable to withholding the erection of building other descriptions of frame buildings such as stables, workshops, planing mills, &c., &c.

Non-concurred in by Select Council. C. C. adhered and appointed Messrs. English, Ingham and Faulhaber a committee of conference, who reported in favor of repealing so much of the ordinance as gives privilege of erecting other than dwelling houses.

Mr. Hanna moved that the vote of thanks of the Common Council be tendered President Benney, and Clerk Robert Dilworth, who have so faithfully served in their respective positions during the past year. A vote of thanks was also tendered the reporters of the press and the Council Messenger for services rendered.

Retiring President Benney delivered a neat and touching farewell address to the Council, and was followed by Mr. Hanna, who made a few fitting and appropriate remarks.

Common Council then adjourned sine die.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Present—Messrs. Drum, Hall, Huckenstein, Irwin, Sullivan, Taylor, A. M. Smith, J. B. Smith, C. C. Smith, Wm. Smith, Thomas, President.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented the report of the City Controller, for the month of December, with a resolution for the payment of the bills, amounting in the aggregate to $4,440 19. The report was accepted and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Drum offered the following resolution, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the act prepared by the City Solicitor, relating to a sewer through the borough of Manchester, which was to have been presented to the Legislature, be withdrawn for the present, and that the Street Committee be and are hereby instructed to confer with a similar committee from said borough, in relation to the location of the same, and report to Councils as soon as possible.

Mr. A. D. Smith presented the report of the Finance Committee. The Committee, to whom was referred the communication from the Allegheny Soldiers' League, soliciting material aid, reported unfavorably to the request, and recommended the members of the League to avail themselves of the advantages afforded by the Allegheny Library, already established and in successful operation.

The Committee also submitted an ordinance fixing and establishing the salaries of city officers, for the ensuing year, as follows:

Mayor, $800; Controller, $1,000; Treasurer, $1,000; Street Commissioner, $1,000; Superintendent of Water Works, $1,200; City Solicitor, $800; Assistant of the Court Agents, $1,000; City Assessor, $500; Recording Regulator, $500; Clerks of Council, $600; Clerk to Committees, $250; Messenger, $450; Janitor, $500; Clerk of Markets, $1,000; Market Constable, $50 a Sweeper of Markets, $600; Weighmaster Diamond Scales, $800; Weighmaster Second ward scales, $800; High Constable, $800; City Constables, each, $600; Captain of Night Watch, $2.25 per night; Night Watchmen, $2.50 per night; Engineers of General Grant and Hope Engines, each, $720; Drivers, each, $600; Hose men, each, $80; Driver of Friendship Hose Carriage, $600; Hose men, each, $80, making a total of about $34,000.

The report was accepted and the ordinance read three times and finally passed.

Mr. Myler presented the report of the Committee on Streets, giving a detailed account of the operations of the Committee during the past year. We learn that during the year the total amount of money expended for cleaning and repairing of streets was $16,802 25. Of this amount $8,777 78 was for cleaning and repairing streets, and the balance for the construction of sewers, repairing of sidewalks on the Commons

COMING ROUND.

When the Constitutional Amendment was under consideration in Congress, and for some time after it had been submitted to the States for ratification or rejection, it was confidently predicted by persons opposed, that it would not be assented to either by Southern people or Legislatures. The third section, debarring leading rebels from office-holding, was denounced as specially odious, not merely to those whose ambitions it would cut off, but to those over whom they had dominated. It was maintained that the Southern people would never consent to have their leaders put under disabilities. In vain was attention called to the fact that young and aspiring men are never loth to have seniors, who hold places of power and block the access of others thereto, die off or forced into retirement. We were told that the Southern people were not moved by personal and selfish considerations of this sort, or of any description whatever, but would stand together inflexibly to the end.

When the Amendment came before the rebel Legislatures, it was promptly voted down. In not one of them did it find favor. In most of them the debates upon it drew out expressions of bitterness and contempt. The ex-rebel journals assumed a loftiness of tone and bearing equal to that exhibited before the war. They declared the South would not agree to its own humiliation; that it would maintain its self-respect, and assert its rights under the Constitution; and that, if forced to extremity, it would again appeal to arms and fight the quarrel out to the last man.

Quite recently a deputation of South Carolinians were at Washington. They went home to urge the reconsideration of the vote respecting the Amendment. Hon. Mr. BROCK, elected to the United States Senate from Virginia, expresses the opinion, based on recent full conferences with members of the Legislature of that State, that the Amendment will be ratified upon assurances that it embraces the ultimate conditions of Reconstruction. What has wrought this sudden and unexpected change of front? Nothing in the world but the proposition in Congress to reduce the contumacious States to the territorial status. This has brought many of the Southern people to their senses, and will yet bring more. Rather than have their States reduced to pupilage, they will consent to any requirements Congress may deem necessary for a speedy and permanent pacification of the country, securing the just rights of all classes and of all sections. The question, therefore, need no longer be debated whether the South will submit.

It cannot be doubted that the greatest necessity which presses alike on all portions of the republic, is repose. Not a repose hollow and deceitful, because bottomed on injustice, but substantial and abiding because founded upon equality. The issue of battle has decided that the American people are to remain under one government; that they have and are to hold common interests, and to sustain manifold relations of inter-dependence; that what promotes the welfare of one section is to be conducive to the happiness and strength of the other. The sooner, therefore, existing difficulties can be settled, and wisely settled, the better for all concerned. Whoever expects by legislation to eliminate all differences and superinduce amity has a superficial understanding of human nature. Much must be left to the mellowing influences of time, to commercial interchanges, to the effects of migration, to new relations of mutual helpfulness, to congeniality of local institutions, and to the death of the more conspicuous leaders of the revolt. These instrumentalities are even now at work, and will increase in potency from year to year.

THE COAL INTEREST.

The fact is well known that anthracite coal has greatly receded in market value, and that all who are concerned in mining and forwarding it to market are incurring either diminished profits or absolute losses. This depression has not resulted from increased importation, but from over-production. The supply has out-run the demand. With nearly three millions of tons more thrown upon the market, during the past year, than during any corresponding period, and no increase of consumption to justify it, prices broke down.

The total value of coal imported into this country during the last fiscal year, was $859,911, of which there was sent out $79,302, leaving only $180,609, as the value of foreign coal consumed. This was mainly bituminous coal, brought in as ballast, and used at or near tide water for manufacturing gas. Some portion of it was Nova Scotia coal, brought into New England, and there competing with Pennsylvania anthracite. It was to stop the growth of this traffic that an increased duty was proposed on imported bituminous coal at the last session of Congress. Such duty could not help the domestic bituminous trade, and was not so designed. The object was to help the anthracite producers.

But, during the year domestic coals were exported to the value of $1,120,424, being an excess over the foreign coals imported of $839,815.

There are towns in Pennsylvania where gas commands $5 per 1,000 feet. The coal used is mainly English, it being cheaper to bring from New Castle and pay the impost, than to get it at the Westmoreland Coal mines and pay railroad charges. At $5 per 1,000 feet nothing is made on this manufacture of gas.

Notwithstanding such is the condition of the Coal Trade, arrangements are making greatly to increase the supply during the year just commenced. There is no probability of an increased demand commensurate to the prospective supply. Prices must rule low. Nor can a remedy be found, in any special or even general adjustment of the tariff. It is indeed, possible, by such general charges as should greatly increase domestic manufactures to create a market for a portion of the extra quantity of coal intended to be forced upon the market, but that is all. It is simply impossible to maintain prices in the face of the over production.

COINAGE.—From 1793 to 1866, the aggregate gold coinage of the United States was $845,536,591.79; silver coinage, $136,-861,813, copper coinage, $5,535,623.55; total, $987,404,028.30. From 1861 to 1866, the gold coinage was $837,128,585.79; the silver coinage, $11,076,067.92; the copper coinage, $3,960,810; total, $271,164,438.74.

THE NEW DIFFICULTY.

The Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery was framed in the words of the Ordinance of 1789 prohibiting bondage in the Northwestern Territories. It provides that "neither slavery nor involuntary servitude shall exist except in punishment for crimes, where the parties shall be duly convicted." It was presumed that practically this would only cover such deprivation of liberty as convicts in jails and penitentiaries are subjected to; and this notwithstanding the fact that laws existed in each of the Southern States for selling free blacks into slavery to their white neighbors in punishment of many lesser violations of the penal code. After the adoption of the Amendment the Civil Rights Bill was passed into a law. It is the exposition given by Congress to the Constitutional Amendment. The marvel is that the words of the amendment were not so chosen as to express the principle that runs through the Civil Rights Bill and no other.

Meantime the Courts of the Southern States have gone on enforcing the local laws. Blacks are publicly sold into slavery, as in former years, upon conviction for offences. In all instances in which the Civil Rights Bill is urged in bar of such proceedings, the rulings have uniformly been that the Bill is unconstitutional. So it would seem to be, in as far as it aims to prevent the punishment of crimes by the enslavement of the offenders.

To what extent the evil under consideration would grow, if left unchecked, it is difficult to foretell. Possibly the Southern people, upon reflection, might see fit to conform their local laws to the spirit in which the Amendment to the National Constitution was conceived. It cannot be doubted but in time such would be the result. General causes in the end prevail against the special. But, meanwhile, great infelicities might arise, shameful to the character of the republic, and seriously harmful to tens of thousands of people. The requisite delay cannot be granted under such circumstances. That public sentiment which demanded the Amendment, and carried it through, will not be baulked, either by the blunders of professed statesmen, or by lingering attachment to slavery or any of its concomitants in Southern communities. The intention was to extirpate slavery, root and branch, and nothing short of such extirpation will be allowed to stand.

How, then, shall the deficiency in the phraseology of the Constitutional Amendment be cured? Only two remedial agencies are available. Either the Supreme Court of the United States must formally declare what is the true intent and meaning of the Amendment, and in so broad terms as to over-rule and abrogate all local laws authorizing Slavery as a punishment, or else a new Amendment must be framed and ratified which shall do the job effectually. Of course, objections exist to legislation by the Courts, such as is here contemplated; but the objections are no stronger in this case than in any other. Notwithstanding the objections, much of the legislation of the country is virtually done by the Courts under pretense of determining what laws do or do not mean. Not unfrequently, when a wrong is to be trampled out, this is the readiest way to do it. If no reasonable hope exists that the Supreme Court will meet this case in a spirit of enlighted and progressive jurisprudence, then the sooner Congress starts a new Amendment to rectify its error, the better it will meet the expectations of the loyal people of the nation.

EDITORIAL BREVITIES.

The National Convention of Colored Soldiers and Sailors held in Philadelphia on Tuesday, was largely attended, delegates being present from nearly all the States. The object of the Convention is to demand for the colored soldiers and sailors who fought to subdue the rebellion, equality of rights with their white brethren in arms, and to secure the co-operation of influential colored men in different sections of the Union, in instituting measures for the active prosecution of their claims, and the assertion of their rights as freemen and citizens.

FROM HARRISBURG.

Editorial Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, Jan. 8, 1867.

It seems to be conceded on all hands that Gen. Cameron has a large majority of the Republican members of the Legislature pledged to vote for him for United States Senator. Some members, who were nominated and elected as friends of Gov. Curtin, are now openly opposing him. His personal popularity with the masses of the people, evinced during the late political canvass, has not availed him.

These unexpected changes of front on the part of members, have given rise to imputations of bribery and corruption. To credit the various stories it would be necessary to believe that Gen. Cameron was possessed of an exhaustless mine of wealth, and that he scattered it with marvellous prodigality. These stories, of fraud, be it remembered, are always current when Cameron has ends personal to himself to accomplish, and it cannot be denied that there are some ugly official records in existence.

A joint committee of the two Houses has been appointed to investigate the present accusations of bribery. Probably there is no expectation of making startling disclosures. The engineers of the movement will be happily disappointed if they should stumble on a rare bit of profligacy. But the hope is that timid men, with wrongfully gotten money in their pockets will be frightened out of the fulfillments of their bargains by which they came by it. I venture to predict that no such results will be produced, that this attempt to defeat Cameron will prove a failure; and that no corruption will be proved.

General Geary has fully identified himself with Cameron. So far, all his appointments have been made with the view of detaching support from Curtin and transferring it to Cameron. Whatever appointments he has to make of pecuniary value, are all pledged to promote the same end. This course on the part of the incoming Governor excites conflicting comments, according to the Senatorial predilections of the individuals talking. There are low threats of reprisals at the elections next autumn, and abundant predictions that Geary's administration will be in the minority in the next Legislature. How far these dolorous prophesies result from a definite forecasting of the future, and how far from the bitterness of present disappointment, it would be idle to speculate.

General Cameron's friends are exultant over his anticipated election. In their elation they more than intimate that a persistent effort will be made to secure the General the Presidential nomination in 1868. This will interfere with General Geary's ambition, which aims at nothing less than the Vice Presidential nomination, and gives sign that it will seek the higher mark.

I venture to predict that the law repealing the Connellsville Railroad charter will not be repealed. The Railroad Committees of the Senate and House may be taken as indications on this point. I hear outpourings that are not auspicious.

The General Railroad Bill introduced into the Senate by Mr. Lowry, of Erie, is again before the Legislature. It is not likely to pass even after considerable alteration. Another bill has been proposed by parties hitherto opposed to freedom in Railroad building, which will be pressed, and, most likely, be carried through into a law.

The Allegheny License question will probably come up again, in the shape it assumed last year, or nearly so. P.

CONSUMPTION.—This Scourge of humanity, bane of civilization, with despotic sway has insinuated itself into all classes, grades and conditions of life. No rank or rank are exempt from its ravages. Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary-headage. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectorant, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, Darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation, and a General Debility. Its condition of the whole system. It is authentically stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of Consumption. No disease has been more thoroughly studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease which exists a greater diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more effectually baffled the skill of the proper Remedy, in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health.

THE TRUTH ABOUT DYSPEPSIA.—Whoever says that Dyspepsia is incurable, tells a falsehood—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, where the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In Winter and early Spring, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to STRENGTHEN THE STOMACH, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectually, so rapidly, so quietly to pleasantly, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This potent preparation trims and balances the system, and clothes it, as it were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint, and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

THURSDAY, JAN. 10, 1867.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD.

(ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS ON FIRST PAGE)

GAZETTE ENLARGEMENT.

The great amount of advertising awarded the GAZETTE by the business community has forced upon us the urgent necessity of an enlargement of the size of our Journal. We at first contemplated issuing a quarto paper, but upon consultation with the proprietors of such journals elsewhere we were dissuaded from adopting that form, feeling that the interests of our advertisers would suffer, while readers would be but slightly benefited. After much study into the matter we have concluded to retain the present form of the GAZETTE, but will add four columns to its size, making THIRTY-SIX COLUMNS OF SPACE. By this arrangement we will be enabled to do full justice to both readers and advertisers, making all pages of our journal equally valuable to the latter, and furnishing more reading matter to the former. In our new size we shall make our bow to the public about the 15th inst., and trust the general community will appreciate our efforts to supply a first-class advertising medium and local and political newspaper.

The Beaten School Mistress.

The Erie Dispatch makes the following statement in regard to an item which it and we published some days since:

A paragraph has been going the rounds of the papers, with reference to a Miss Haskill, who was nearly killed by Miss Asenath Wells, a turbulent scholar, some weeks since, and which statement is partially incorrect. Miss Addie Haskill returned to her home from the West, on account of ill health, where she had been a very popular teacher, and it was only after many importunities from the directors that she consented to take charge of the Sweatland school, Waterford township, where she was subsequently injured. The girl Wells was insubordinate, and Miss Haskell undertook to punish her, (and not her little sister, as stated,) when Miss Wells grappled with her, and threw her so heavily against one of the benches that her spine was injured to such an extent that Miss Haskill is only sane an hour or two in the twenty-four. He life also is despaired of. Mr. Haskell, the father of the sufferer, is about to commence proceedings against Miss Wells for this savage assault.

Counterfeiters at Titusville.

The Titusville Herald says: Yesterday afternoon, ex-policeman Carter was the means of arresting three men whom he had detected in passing counterfeit fifty cent stamps. The parties are named Marcus Hughes, William Hughes and William Hunt. Mr. Carter followed them from the depot, visiting the different saloons at which they stopped, and collecting between fifteen and twenty dollars. He then went to the Mayor's office and notified the police, and the guilty parties were arrested. Marcus Hughes made a confession in which he stated that he bought forty-five of the counterfeit notes for five dollars on Saturday. He refused to tell where he obtained them, and it is a matter of conjecture. The prisoners were briefly examined before Justice Stronse, and the case adjourned till this evening at 7 o'clock.

Johnstown.

Among the great iron manufacturing establishments for which Pennsylvania is famous is that of Johnstown, where a town of fifteen thousand inhabitants has sprung up around the iron works. The iron is produced from the immediate neighborhood, the ore yielding about fifty per cent. of iron. About twelve hundred tons of railway iron are manufactured every week, enough to lay twelve miles of track. A million dollars capital is invested in the business, and 3200 men and boys are employed, the wages varying from $1 42 to $4 per day. A woolen mill is in operation near Johnstown which gives employment to the wives and daughters of the iron-workers. The railroad iron manufactured is sold for about thirty dollars per ton, and is mostly used for the Pacific Railroad.

Smashed.

From the Crawford Journal we take the following: Two young bloods from Oil City hired a turnout at Wyrant's livery stable, on Thursday, and having taken on board a goodly quantity of oh-be-joyful, proceeded to rush through the streets, and astonish the natives. Turning a corner, with the horse on a keen run, was decided upon as the quickest method of creating a sensation, and they accordingly tried the experiment at the intersection of Water and Chestnut streets, bringing up with a suddenness very startling, against a post by the American. As a natural consequence both dropped out, the sleigh was minus a pair of shafts, and the driver short five dollars. Had the police done their duty, lodgings would have been provided in the calaboose.

Contract Awarded.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says: Proposals were opened at noon, on Friday, at the office of Captain A. S. Kimball, A. Q. M., Depot Quartermaster, in Baltimore, for furnishing the Government with cavalry and artillery horses under conditions expressed by advertisement. Bidders were present from New York, Philadelphia, Wilmington, Delaware, Kinsua, Carlisle, and other points. Mr. Hiram Potter, Jr., of New York, was found to be the lowest responsible bidder and he was accordingly awarded the contract for furnishing the entire lot of 126 cavalry and 14 artillery houses. There was a marked difference in the range of bids, they price demanded being much higher for artillery than cavalry horses.

Man Drowned.—One night last week, while a man was attempting to cross the Susquehanna between Middletown and the York county shore, the ice broke and he fell into the river and was drowned. He was accompanied by two small boys who were pushing at the rear of a sled, which the man was engaged in pulling across on the ice. After he had broken through the ice the boys had presence of mind enough to turn the body of the sled towards him and hold on to the rope, but in his efforts to escape, the ice kept breaking and the boys becoming alarmed for their safety, fled and left him to his fate. We did not learn whether the boys were his own children or not.

Deer Poisoning.—From the Huntingdon Globe we take the following: John Thomas, a well-known colored man residing in this place, was last week poisoning by eating a piece of the liver of a deer. It is supposed the animal had eaten some laurel, the poison of which was communicated to the liver. Mr. Thomas suffered from the infectious diet, and upon discovering that he was poisoned, took an emetic, and has now recovered. It is said that the poison which a deer eats always lodges in its liver; so epicures should be cautious in eating that viand.

White Marble.—A specimen of beautiful white marble has been left at the office of the Norristown Republican. It is from the farm of Joseph W. and Jonathan Conrad, of Upper Merion, near Conshohocken. The article is said to exist on this farm in great quantity The Messrs. Conrad have been offered $5,000 for five acres of the land containing the valuable vein. Thirty years ago they purchased the farm, now consisting of 135 acres, for $80 per acre. This place adjoins George Bullock's, which also abounds in rich veins of this marble.

Another Murdering Machine.—A colored boy named Douglas, residing in Surry, has invented a new and destructive fire-arm in the shape of a rifle-battery, which is on exhibition in Buffalo. It is constructed in such a manner as to throw one hundred and eight Minnie balls at one discharge from percussion shell cartridges, and the machine can be kept in continual operation. Experienced military men have examined the battery, and pronounce it one of the most formidable pieces of ordinance yet invented.

Suicide in an Alms House.—The York True Democrat has the following: Mr. Henry Witt, an insane occupant of our alms house, committed suicide by hanging himself in his cell, on Wednesday morning last. The cord of his bed was around his neck when discovered and fastened to the grate. Mr. Witt at one time kept a livery stable in this borough, and was regarded as an active and intelligent business man. We do not know what was the occasion of his insanity.

Shot Himself.—One day last week, Tobias Applebach, of the village of Erwinna, attempted to fire off his pistol, but failed to obey the trigger. He commenced to examine it, with one hand held over the muzzle, when the thing went off of its own accord, the load going through his hand and tearing it dreadfully. Another illustration in proof of the old adage that shot guns are dangerous, even if they are without lock, stock or barrel.

Drowned.—A Mr. Hayslip, of Fayette, we are informed, was found on last Monday, hanging by his coat, between two of the Union Coal and Oil Company's flat boats, near Canonsburg. He was night watchman for the company, we understand, and it is supposed, accidently lost his life during the windy storm of last Sunday night.

Slate Sold.—The Lehigh Company at Slatington, have sold their property designated as that portion of their right known as the "Franklin Slate Quarry," to Messrs. Henry Williams and D. D. Jones, for the sum of $80,000. The tract of land on which the quarry is located embraces about twenty-five acres, and the quarry is said to be one of the best in this section of the country.

Man Killed.—At Mansfield, Ohio, on Monday afternoon, the mail train on the Sandusky, Mansfield and Newark railroad ran over Mr. John Thompson, master machinist of the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne railroad, cutting off his left leg near the hip, and crushing the right foot. He will probably die. Repeated warnings were given him.

Lost Money.—Messrs. Dall and Gowan, of Harrisburg, Pa., were the engineers of the Chicago lake tunnel. They contracted to do the work for $600,000, but it is said the entire cost will be $900,000. The contractors have, therefore lost heavily.

A Sharp Dead Man.—A man in Eaton, Ohio, attempted to realize $20,000 on a life insurance by pretending to have sickened and died suddenly. The fraud was discovered and all the parties connected with the sham are in limbo.

Traveling Joke.—The Cleveland papers, on the principle of a disappointed urchin "making mouths," characterize the Bateman Concert Troupe as a "Parepa-lytic" affair—very uncertain in its movements.

Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad.

The report of the President of this Company, J. M. McCullough, Esq., for the fiscal year ending November 30th, 1866, shows the road to be in a most prosperous condition. The receipts for the year were as follows:

| | |
|---|---|
| From passengers | $888,072 77 |
| From freight | 1,468,631 56 |
| From miscellaneous sources | 44,351 50 |
| From surplus earnings Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago | 226,365 74 |
| Total | $2,607,971 56 |

EXPENSES.

| | |
|---|---|
| For account of motive power and cars | $627,880 03 |
| For maintenance of way and structures | 494,567 48 |
| For transportation expenses | 309 814 27 |
| For general expenses | 204,357 69 |
| Total | $1,697,178 40 |
| Leaving as net earnings | 910,192 02. |

The result is in a high degree satisfactory Notwithstanding the transportation of troops and munitions of war for the Government, has ceased since the collapse of the rebellion, the receipts from the business of the road have been nearly as large as they have ever been.

From the net earnings, $257,681 50 have been paid on mortgage interest; $5,720 54 on interest on notes and accounts, and $85,000 on lease of Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad track—leaving as a balance of the year's business $562,320 03, which has been mainly appropriated to the payment of expenses incurred in new equipment, and in extending the facilities of the road. The principal reason why the payment of regular dividends has not been resumed, is the great increase of the company's business, for the proper performance of which large outlays have been necessary. Many permanent improvements have been made, valuable real estate purchased in Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and old indebtedness has been paid to a large amount. The road is now in first-class condition and well equipped for the present trade, and the stockholders will not have to wait long for regular and substantial returns.

Legislation Asked for by Lawrenceville.

At the last meeting of the Lawrenceville Borough Council, held on Monday evening, the following resolutions, asking for important legislation relating to the Borough, were passed:

Resolved, That the Borough Solicitor be instructed to procure the following legislation for the borough during the present session of the Legislature, to-wit:

First. An act authorizing the corporation to take and hold real estate not exceeding in value $50,000 for corporate purposes.

Second. An act relative to the construction of sewers similar to that now in force in the city of Pittsburgh.

Third. An act authorizing the borough authorities to extend Allen, Pike and Covington streets through Walnright's Island to main shore of the Allegheny river.

Fourth. An act similar to that now in force in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, defining and punishing disorderly conduct within the corporate limits of the borough of Lawrenceville.

Fifth. An act authorizing the corporation to borrow money, not exceeding the amount of $25,000 at not more than eight per cent.

Sixth. An act providing for the dividing of the borough into two wards.

Seventh. An act providing for the extension of the limits of theborough as follows: Southward from Boundary street to railroad, to a point opposite Pearl street, thence by Pearl to Pittsburg and Greensburg pike to the borough line at St. Mary's Cemetery, to be called the Third ward.

Eighth. An act authorizing a charge of half Pittsburg rates for vehicle license.

On motion a committee of three, as follows: Messrs. Ahlborn, Anderson and Riser, were appointed to confer with the Solicitor in reference to such legislation.

Pittsburgh Turnverein Association.

The semi-annual meeting of the Pittsburgh District of the National American Turners' Association was held at the hall of the Cleveland Turnverein, Cleveland, on Monday. Delegations were present from Pittsburgh, Allegheny, Wheeling and Johnstown, each of those places, according to the rules of the Association, being entitled to one delegate for every twenty-five members.

The meetings in this District have, heretofore, been held semi-annually, but in the future they will be held only once a year—the next or "first annual" convention having been appointed for Johnstown, Pa., September 2, 1867.

The officers for the ensuing year were selected from the Pittsburgh society, and are as follows: President, C. F. Bauer; Secretary, A. Meckelburg; Trustees, G. A. Scheurem, C. Schellhardt.

Oil in West Virginia.—The production of light oil is eight hundred, and of heavy lubricating oil one thousand barrels per day, in the petroleum district of Western Virginia.

Lake Erie Casualties.—One hundred and seventy persons have been drowned, or killed by accidents, on Lake Erie, in 1866.

The Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company.

At a meeting of the Board of trade, of Pittsburgh, yesterday, January 9th, the following resolutions were unanimously anopted:

WHEREAS,—All new enterprises of a public character, designed for the creation of increased facilities for the transaction of business, deserves, if intended to be permanent in their character, the support of the public, therefore,

Resolved, That the Pittsburgh Board of Trade, recognize with pleasure the success of the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company, of the United States, in the construction of its line from Pittsburgh to the sea board; that its line from Pittsburgh towards the west in the construction of its lines towards the Mississippi river and the Lakes, we feel gratification, in the hope of increased competition with the present monopoly of telegraphic communication in the West.

Resolved, That as a competition is the only radical cure for the evils of monopolies, that we heartily endorse the Pacific and Atlantic Telegraph Company of the United states, as an enterprise worthy of the support of the business parties, the more especially as it is a western organization, all possible means, are taken to have its entire stock subscribed in the west.

Resolved, That we take pleasure in noting the provisions in its certificates of stock—that the line cannot be sold without the written consent of three-fourth of its stockholders, as providing a guarantee that the line will not be absorbed or sold out, to a removing of healthy competition in the cost and facilities of telegraphic communication; and assuring to the business public an exemplar from the evils of telegraphic monopoly.

Wouldn't Pay for a License.

Yesterday afternoon a man named John Wain was brought before United States Commissioner Sproul, charged with violation of the United States Revenue Laws. The accusation was made by Alleghany, and had no license. He was noticed by Theodore F. Straub, Inspector for the Twenty-fifth District, that a license and the paying for the same were absolutely indispensable to the successful carrying on of the butchering business under existing statutes. That made no difference. John wouldn't pay for any license. Accordingly, Mr. Straub preferred the charge mentioned. At the hearing yesterday, the Commissioner urged the same necessity of a license. The same result followed, the obstinate butcher utterly refusing to entertain for a moment the thought of a license. Therefore, the Commissioner required him to find bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance at Court. Here obstinacy again cropped out. There was plenty of bail that the prisoner could get, but he refused to make any effort to obtain any. He was accordingly sent to jail. His wife subsequently came to the office and stated that she would secure bail for him to-day, so that he will probably have liberty if not license to-day.

Extension of the Monongahela Slackwater Navigation.

At present there are six dams on the Monongahela river, making it navigable to Geneva, a town about ninety-five miles from the city, and four from the Virginia line. A seventh dam at the vicinity of Geneva would allow steamers to reach Morgantown, West Virginia, about fourteen miles further up, and thus divert the trade of a large and productive section of country from the Ohio river. The Slackwater Navigation Company offers to build this seventh dam provided the town of Morgantown subscribes $20,000 to the capital stock of the company. In accordance with the appointment of the borough council, the sense of the freeholders of town were to have been taken by ballot yesterday, and as the citizens are greatly in favor of the proposed improvement, the decision was doubtless in favor of the subscription.

Common Pleas Court.

WEDNESDAY, January 9. Judge Sterrett on the bench.

Robinson, Rea & Co., vs. Eureka Insurance Company. Plaintiffs seek to recover claims on the steamboat River Queen, burned at the Monongahela wharf in September, 1865, leaving Fred. by W. Champlin, engineer, and one-eighth owner of the boat. Defendants claim that under the terms of the policy of insurance there can be no recovery, risks having been taken in another company without notice to the Eureka; and also for the reason that the destruction of the boat was wilfully caused by Champlin, one of the owners. On trial.

District Court.

WEDNESDAY, January 9.—Judge Hampton on the bench.

John Adams and Frederick Bilnd vs. John C. Lappen. This case (tried yesterday) was settled by the parties.

William Nicholson vs. James S. Stewart. Plaintiff in a real estate agent, and alleged that in October, 1865, he sold a lot of coal land in Scott township, for defendant, which sale was ratified, but that he never received remuneration for his services as agent. Hence the action. Jury out.

Alice Wall et al. vs. John E. Shaffer. Action to recover mesne profits. On trial.

Alleged Attempt to Defraud.—Jno. Shane made a deposition before Alderman Strain, yesterday, charging J. Sumwalt with Pennsylvania avenue, with attempt to defraud. It is alleged that the defendant owes to the firm of Shane & Co. the sum of $607.37, and that he is now disposing of his stock of goods at auction, for the purpose, as deponent believes, of cheating and defrauding his creditors. A warrant was issued, and the accused arrested by officer Seth Wilmot. At the conclusion of the hearing he was held bail in the sum of $500 to answer the charge at Court.

Thanks.—With the closing of the present session of the City Councils, we feel it incumbent upon us to tender our sincere and hearty thanks to D. Macferron, Esq., clerk of the Select Council, and Robert Dilworth, Esq., clerk of Common Council, for many favors received at their hands during the past year. Both are careful, competent, obliging and efficient officers, and have admirably filled their respective positions during the past year, performing their duties to the interest of the city and satisfaction of the councils.

Tin Ware.—For anything of a substantial character in the tin ware business we know of no place to recommend our readers than to Mr. P. C. Duffey's, No. 146 Grant street. He is a thorough practical mechanic and has had liberal experience in his particular line of business. He keeps on hand a full assortment of hardware, skates, &c., and for stoves his establishment is the place to patronize.

A Coroner on a Strike.—Yesterday afternoon Patrick Hanlon came before Alderman Strain and preferred a charge of assault and battery against Sidney Cooper. The deponent alleges that the accused attacked him in the Eighth ward, near the Pennsylvania Forge, and then struck and kicked him. The lively Cooper was arrested by officer Wilmot and held for a further hearing.

Released on Bail.—Joseph Weaver, one of the men committed on the 2d inst. by Alderman Strain, to answer a charge of passing counterfeit money, preferred by A. Hagen, procured bail yesterday, and was released, to wait outside for his trial.

Inquest.—An inquest was held by Coroner Clawson, yesterday morning, on the remains of Joseph Franklin, who dropped dead on the Washington Pike, near Mansfield, Tuesday morning. A verdict of death from natural causes was rendered.

Retained.—The Titusville Herald says Joseph Lamberton, Esq., has not yet taken his seat in the Legislature, on account of the serious illness of his wife.

FINANCE AND TRADE,

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, Jan. 9, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as reported by Robinson, McClean & Co., were as follows: Gold, 134@134¾; Eighty-one bonds, 108@108¾; Five Twenties, old, 107¾; Five Twenties, '65, 106; Five Twenties, new, 104; Ten-Forties, —; Seven Thirties, 104¾; Michigan Southern R. R., 81¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 91¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne & Chicago, 103¾; Chicago & Rock Island, 103¾; Erie, Railroad, 67¾; Chicago and North Western R. R., 45¾; do preferred, 83½; Western Union Telegraph Company, 46¾; Reading, 105½; Illinois Central, 129¼. New York Central 111¾; Cumberland, 93¾; Ohio, 27¾.

—The proposition to take from the National Banks the right to count compound notes as a part of their legal reserve is creating alarm among bankers, and in some quarters it is claimed that such a course, if insisted upon by law, would be very detrimental to the country at large. It is claimed that the withdrawal of the compound notes from the banks at maturity will force upon them a conservative policy, which cannot fail to be felt by their debtors, who must pay up as fast as the banks are obliged to contract by the maturing of their interest-bearing reserve. The following is an extract from the letter of the president of the first National Bank of New York, which we have already announced was read by Mr. Kelly in Congress during a debate upon the finances:

"I wish to enter my protest to the Hon. Mr. Hooper and others against amending the National Bank Law so that the banks cannot count in their reserve money and their compound interest notes. When they are due and payable they should not be counted as money; but to compel the banks to substitute gold or greenbacks for the compounds they hold any faster than they fall due, will surely cause a revulsion in the money market, and the Government itself will not be among the minor sufferers. The banks will necessarily violate the law as regards their reserve, or fail, many of them outright.

"A strong point in Mr. Hooper's bill restricting the rates of interest and the severe penalty for usury which it imposes, is against the spirit of the age. A should be released to a uniform rate of interest, say 7 per cent, with privileges, in writing, to take 10 per cent, regardless of State law."

—The annual report of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad shows that the receipts for the year ending December 30, 1866, were $2,907,571, on which there were paid $1,607,-179, leaving as net earnings $610,792. From these net earnings there has been paid $348,-472, of which $263,472 was interest and $85,000 was for the annual rent of the Fort Wayne track. The balance of the year's business was then reduced to $262,320, out of which a dividend of five per cent was paid January 1st, 1866, amounting to $227,000. Out of the residue $124,611 was paid for new equipment, $94,000 for new structures and improvements, and moreover, $127,000 of floating debt has been paid off. The assets on hand amount to the handsome sum of $699,266, of which the material at shops are $254,069, the net balance from personal accounts $37,486, while the cash in the hands of the Treasurer amounts to $206,579.

—The Supreme Court at Washington has decided that National banks are not exempt from the obligation of paying taxes toward the police and other municipal and State expenditure. It will be remembered that the Court below adjudged the shareholders of bank stock to be liable on such shares to State and local taxation as personal property. This decision has been affirmed, the dissenting Judges being Chase, Wayne and Swayne.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 9, 1867.

It was predicted some weeks ago that after the first of the new year trade would become more active, and that activity and buoyancy would take the place of dullness and stagnation. Thus far, we regret to state, these predictions have not been wholly realized, and while there is what may be called a fair jobbing trade, there is almost an entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling, and consequently, the operations in Flour and Grain, and produce generally, are very much restricted, and we have but comparatively few round lot operations to record.

GRAIN—Wheat is quiet, but held firmly at $2.60 for No. 1 Spring, and $2.80 to $2.90 for Winter. Oats dull but unchanged, and the same is true of Corn. The former may be quoted at 48 to 50 on track, and 52 to 53, in store. We can report a sale of 200 bushels of Corn at 80—may be quoted at 75, on track. There is no movement in Rye or Barley, and prices are nominally unchanged.

FLOUR—Is firm, but the demand is light, and prices, if anything, are looking upward. We quote at $12.50 to $12.75 for fair to choice Spring Wheat; $13.50 to $14.50 for Winter Wheat; and $15 to $17 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is selling for $10 to $8½. Buckwheat is dull at $4.00 per cwt.

DRESSED HOGS—Are not coming in so freely, and with a fair demand, the market may be quoted steady at 7½ to 8c, by the retail way—packers paying 7½ for good averages.

HAY—Continues to come in freely and with a supply considerably in excess of the demand, the market is dull and neglected, though prices are unchanged. We have sales of 2 cars prime baled reported at $28@29.

BUTTER—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and while the market continues dull, prices remain unchanged—prime to choice Roll selling at 30 to 33.

EGGS—Dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand, and fresh packed move very slowly at 30.

APPLES—Quiet and unchanged—the receipts are increasing slightly. We can report regular sales at $5.50 to $4 per bbl, for good to prime.

POTATOES—Continue exceedingly dull, notwithstanding the arrivals have been very light, for some time past. We hear of sales of Peach Blows in store, at 90c per bushel.

OIL—Lard Oil is selling at $1.12 to $1.15 for No. 1, and 87 to 90 for No. 2.

LARD—New kettle rendered Lard is selling at 12½ to 13, in tierces.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, January 9, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was remarkably quiet to-day, but two small sales amounting in the aggregate, to three hundred barrels being reported, and 14c, packages included, we believe, was the price. For barrel oil, on the spot, quotations may be fairly given at 25 to 28, packages returned, and 13½ to 14, packages included, and for the present, these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. Smith's Ferry is selling at 7¼ to 7¾, bbls returned, and even at these seemingly low figures, the demand is limited. For spring delivery, we hear of offers to sell at 30, and offers 27 buy at 25, but holders seem to be very stiff at the above named quotation, and some dealers refuse to sell ahead, preferring rather to take the chances of the market.

REFINED—The market was again very quiet to-day, and while there is no change in prices here, the market east is less active and a shade weaker—at least it was so reported to us. The sale of 500 bbls, noted in our last report, as pending on Tuesday evening was consummated—commencing with June at 34, and advancing one half cent per gallon each month. For immediate delivery in Philadelphia, we continue to quote, in the absence of sales, at 29½ to 31, on board cars here, and 27 to 27½, delivered in Philadelphia. Free oil quiet and unchanged.

—In our last report, there were two very annoying errors, which we here take occasion to correct. The sale of 3000 bbls crude for spring delivery, was at 9 instead of 6 cents, and 1000 bbls bonded for July delivery, at 35, instead of 25.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The market is firmer, and there is more business doing in the new styles of prints, at 18 for Pacific American; 17½ for Allens; 17 for Arnolds; 15 for Naumkeag; 14¾ for Wamsutta for 13½ and Hoveys, at 13½. Brown Sheetings firm and in moderate demand, at 22½ for Atlantic, A; 22 for Indian Head and Pacific extra, and 21½ for Stark, A. Bleached Muslins in limited request and firm, at 22½ for 4 Wamsutta; 21 for Androscoggin; 17½ for Bates XX; 24 for Langdon; 22 for Geo. C. Dalton, and 20 for Jamestown. Canton Flannels in moderate demand, at 29 for Hamilton Stout and Lacon; 25 for Franconia, and 26 for Naumkeag, F.

Philadelphia Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, January 9.—There was an offering of 150,000 pounds of wool, comprising lots of fleece Texas and scoured, owned by Tobias and Midmiller, and part damaged by fire. The trade was well represented with a fair amount of manufacturers in attendance. There was an improvement in prices over last weeks' quotations. The bidding was spirited and good feeling seemed to manifest itself among the buyers generally. The whole offering was sold excepting three little lots of shoddy, which were passed. The prices of fleece ranged from 37½c to 52c for first class lots. Texas sold at good figures.

Cincinnati Iron Market.

CINCINNATI, January 7.—The past has been another quiet week for pig iron. The demand is light, but stocks are only moderate, and, though quiet, the market is firm. Hot blast is held at $46@48 per ton for mill iron, and $50@52 for No. 1, according to brand. Cold blast is quoted at $55 to $65 per ton, as to quality. A few sales were made within the above range. In bar iron the transactions are light, though we have no change to note in prices. We quote common at 5c, and charcoal at 6½c per pound. Horse and mule shoes are in fair request, at 9½@9½c per pound for the former, and 9½@10c for the latter.

Louisville Market.

LOUISVILLE, January 9.—Sales 27 hhds. tobacco at 12@18. Flour—Superfine Flour, $9.75. Red Oats, 60c. Shelled Corn, bulk, 70c; ear, 60c. Lard, 12c. Bulk Meats, 6@6½c. Mess Pork, $20.50. Cotton, 23@24c. Sugars, 8@9c. Clear Sides, 12c. Molasses, 75c. Prime to middling, Plantation Ky., 33@35 in bond. N. O. Sugar, 13c. Whiskey, $2.00 in bond.

Philadelphia Cattle Market.

PHILADELPHIA, January 7.—Beef Cattle have advanced; sales of 1800 head at the Avenue at 17@18, choice at 18½, and fair to at 16@16 to per 100 lbs. Hogs—Sales of 3000 head at 6 to 7c per lb. gross. Sheep advanced; sales of 3000 head at 6 to 7c gross at $5.50 to 9.50 per 100 lbs net.

MARKETS BY TELEGRAPH.

New York Financial Matters.

NEW YORK, January 9.—Gold opened at 34¼, advanced to 34¾ and closed weak at 33¾. Government lower and dull. Money easier at 6@7. Coupons '81, 8½@8⅝; do '02, 106@106½; do '64, 7¾@7⅞; do '65, 7¾@8⅝. 10-40s 96¾@100. Stocks lower and closed steady: Western Union, 45¾@46; New York Central, 109¾@109⅞; Reading, 94@94⅝; Erie, 65¾@65¾; Illinois Central, 128½; Pittsburgh, 89½@90¾; New York, 85¾@85⅞; Rock Island, 102¾; Terre Haute, 39½; Missouri 6s, 95¾. Mining stocks active and higher: Corydon, 63⅝; Quartz Hill, 49; Grinnell Gold, 130; La Crosse, 105; Gold Hill, 410.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, January 9.—Cotton, 34½@35c. Flour less active and unchanged. Wheat dull and unchanged; three boat loads of No. 2 Milwaukee, on speculation, at $2.40@2.42. Rye, $1.27@1.29 for Western. Corn 1@2c lower, at 72c for Western Yellow, in store, closed heavy; Western Mixed, 71; buyers offering 69@70. Oats 1@2c lower, at 66c for Chicago and Milwaukee, and 68c for New Ohio. Pork firmer, at $20.00@20.62 for New, closing at the latter price for Western; $19.00@19.25 for Old, closing at the latter price for cash, and $16.75@17.50 for Prime; 1,100 bbls of New sold at $20.75@21.00. Cut Meats heavy. Dressed Hogs easier, at 6¾@7¾ for Western. Lard dull, at 11¾@12¾c. Petroleum quiet. Wool steady and quiet, at 35@63c for domestic fleece.

RIVER NEWS.

There is nothing transpiring at the levee worthy of special notice. The weather continues winter like, and the prospects for an early break up are not very encouraging. We had quite a snow storm yesterday afternoon, and the roads in the country, we have no doubt, are in excellent condition for sleighing.

The following boats are taking all the freight thatoffers: Kate Robinson and Leonidas for New Orleans; Kate Putnam and Glendale for St. Louis, and the Maggie Hays for Cincinnati and Louisville.

It was reported at Cincinnati on Monday that the Arabian had been sold to some St. Louis parties for $24,000. The Ida Rees was at Pomeroy on Monday, and the Forest City left Parkersburgh for Pittsburgh the same day. Capt. Jesse Dean, of the Messenger, has has arrived at Cincinnati. He reports his boat laid up opposite Randolph, Mississippi, awaiting her shaft, which was to reach Cincinnati Tuesday by rail, and will be immediately repaired and returned. Ten days will probably elapse before the Messenger can leave her present situation.

We clip the following items from the Cincinnati Commercial, of Tuesday: The Magnolia, Capt. J. H. Prather, will leave for Ripley and Maysville to-morrow at 12 M. We suppose the Louisville mail packets will also resume their regular trips to-day or to-morrow. One boat a day would prove a great accommodation to the public. Capt. Mart. R. Walt, of Memphis, is here. He also received a dispatch yesterday, announcing that the steamer Memphis cannot be raised. The Camelia has been thoroughly repaired, and will leave the Monroe Ways as soon as navigation will permit. Capt. Lytle, her commander, contemplates paying Pittsburgh a short visit. Jack Wright is in the city calling on his old river friends. His headquarters are now in New York. The Kanawha packet Moline Norton, was high and dry on the bank above the mouth of Deer Creek yesterday, where she was caught by the receding river and shore ice. The various insurance companies held their annual elections yesterday. The old board of Directors were generally re-elected. We hope their liberality during 1867 may fond up less than during 1866. The Havana arrived at Nashville yesterday all right, and discharged her cargo. Capt. A. Cox advertises the Arabian to be lower, at Capt. Sam Barr, Jr., left for Pittsburgh in last night's train. Capt. Throop will introduce a new leader on his new Evansville and Cairo packet Flying Eagle. Capt. Kelly, of Cleveland, Ohio, is here superintending its construction.

An Alton paper says the steamer R. E. Lee is faster than the famous Altona, which in years past ran between St. Louis and Alton. In regards the name as a very good selection, as the fleetness of the steamer will be a constant reminder to the ex-rebels of the remarkable time made by Gen. Lee, when Chief of the Confederate army, on his retreat before the national forces, after the evacuation of Richmond.

Says the St. Louis Democrat, of Monday: The stern-wheel steamer Amaranth was sold by the Sheriff to-day, under the mortgage of Harrison and F. H. Kelley) for $2,400. Mr. S. bought for other parties. It is but a few months since the same boat was sold at private sale for $12,000. The New Orleans Commercial Bulletin understands that one of the oldest and most popular steamboat commanders of former days (meaning D. DeHaven) has on foot, with every probability of success, a project to build, as soon as possible, a magnificent steamboat to run in the St. Louis trade. The steamer to be built is to far surpass in elegance of construction, speed and speed any boat ever on the Mississippi river, and it is proposed to make nearly all the business men of New Orleans, St. Louis and the Southwest interested in her success, by getting up a popular joint stock company, the shares of which shall be divided between the merchants and business men of the two sections in sums of one hundred dollars each. The Fleta has been sold by the Sheriff at New Orleans for $5,000, cash.

PURE CALIFORNIA WINES.
GURNER & CO.,
No. 80 Cedar St., New York.
Offer for sale these valuable Wines, which are gaining public favor by their astonishing purity and whose unprecedented and unrivalled popularity is not without merit. They have only to be fairly tested to give them the preference over all others. As a purifier of blood they excel all other Wines, and the numerous certificates which have been cheerfully been tendered from the most eminent physicians, as well as gentlemen in every position in life, are proof conclusive that these Wines are worthy in all cases for which they are recommended.

The following brands are now offered by us. They comprise all the varieties now grown in the State suitable for sale:

WHITE ROCK WINE—Of a light straw color, very delicate and fine flavored.

CLARET—A superior wine for table use.

ANGELICA—Rich and naturally sweet wine, much admired by ladies, and valuable in the sick chamber, as it contains fine wheys and jellies. It is a fine dessert wine, and well adapted for Communion purposes.

MUSCATEL—A light colored, highly aromatic wine. Very similar to the celebrated Tokay.

PORT—Ruby red color, fine flavor, and in many respects similar to the old wines of Lisbon.

GRAPE BRANDY—The pure distillation of our vines.

WINE BITTERS—A very agreeable tonic and a sure remedy for the diarrhœa.

This is one of the most valuable combinations of a useful and an agreeable beverage that has ever been offered to the public. Millions of bottles were sold throughout the North during the last four years, and whether introduced in new or old settlements it has proved a welcome addition to the invalid table, the family circle, and the bachelor's sideboard.

Ladies who have lost strength and appetite, and suffer from nausea, vomiting and vertigo; gentlemen who "don't feel very well" just before breakfast or dinner, whose stomachs are out of order and whose systems are generally deranged; mothers wearing children and suffering from debility; children of sickly nature and sour, dyspeptic constitutions; travelers who have occasion to change their water; and all who live in malarious districts and are subject to miasmatic influences, will find it one of the most valuable invigorators that can be taken.

It was used very extensively in 1861, with much general satisfaction that an offering it to the public now we deem it unnecessary to publish any of the many certificates that we have received, certifying in the very strongest terms in its favor. All that we can say is to guarantee that we will pledge ourselves for its purity and excellence AND MANUFACTURED.

It has been given to little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite and daily wasting consumption, to whom all medical skill has been exhausted, has been entirely restored. She began with but a teaspoonful a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased and she is now well.
